

Deutsche Bank Depository Receipts invites you to a presentation of Morrow Sodali's Institutional Investor Survey:
Matters that count for your 2019 AGM – a global perspective

Morrow Sodali's latest Institutional Investor survey covers USD33 trillion Assets under Management with most large and influential investors participating across a wide spread of geographies. This survey identifies important issues and investor views on the upcoming AGM season: Board engagement, composition and accountability, Compensation, Disclosure, Activism and ESG integration. We will also discuss the current topics and impact of the survey results for the German 2019 AGM season as well as lessons learned from the first DAX AGMs of the year.
